UDGA SHOW RULES AND INFORMATION

1. General Information: These shows are sanctioned by the American Dairy Goat Association (ADGA) and their rules shall govern. Only American Dairy Goat Association, American Goat Society and Canadian Goat Society registered recorded or applied – for animals may be shown in an official American Dairy Goat Association show. These Rules have been submitted to ADGA with sanctions.
2. Base Date: The base date for these shows will be June 3, 2023
3. Disclaimer: Neither ADGA, UDGA nor Cache County Fair Grounds or anyone representing the above shall be held responsible for illness, injury, damage or loss of animals, persons or property.
4. Check in procedures: Check in time will be as follows:
Friday June 2, 2023 12:00 pm to 7:00 pm
Substitutions are acceptable but any changes made must be done during check in times. Animal registration papers must be presented and checked by show secretaries at this time.
5. Health papers: All animals will be inspected upon arrival and any showing signs of abscesses in any stage or any infectious condition or disease in any stage will be refused. Disputes of refusal will be resolved by a licensed veterinarian at the exhibitors expense.
6. Animal Arrival and release times: All animals must be in place no later than one hour before show time and must remain on the show grounds until after that breed has been shown. All best of breed winners must remain in place until after the best in show animal has been chosen. Animals should be removed from the barn by 10 PM Saturday evening.
7. Milk out: No pre-show milk out will be held. However, all exhibitors are reminded that judges will discriminate against over –uddered does in the show ring.
8. Tattoos: In accordance with ADGA rules, animals must be tattooed before they are registered. No tattooing at the show. Please check your animals; tattoos before you enter the ring.
9. Recorded Grades: Dairy goats, whose papers read experimental, native on appearance must show in recorded grade class.
10. Horns: No animals with horns are allowed. Scurs are acceptable.
11. Exhibitors: Exhibitors are expected to present a neat appearance in the show ring. Acceptable attire is as dictated by ADGA; white or black pants are okay. The show committee reserves the right to refuse entry or dismiss from the show and show grounds any person or persons showing an objectionable attitude and/or behavior toward the judge, show committee or other exhibitors. Entry fees will not be refunded. We expect the Rules governing this show to be read and complied with.
12. Milk Disposal: All milk is to be disposed of in the wash rack drain adjacent to the goat barn.
13. Pen fees and bedding: Exhibitors are responsible for providing their own feed, hay and bedding (must be sawdust shavings NO STRAW). The Club will have bedding to purchase on site. It is requested that each exhibitor keep up, maintain their area and make sure your area is clean of debris before you leave. Pen cleaning is NOT required but it would be appreciated if exhibitors would help tear down panels and stack them along the outer walls.
14. Food and vendors: There are various restaurants, fast food, etc. in town. Picnics are allowed.
15. Vandalism: You will be held liable for any destructive behavior vandalism or damage to any property in the fairground and/or surrounding area. Violators will be held responsible. No fire arms whether toy or not will be allowed on the premises.
